

THE LONDON BUTCHERS.

Introductory Notes.

There is reason to believe that the London butchers follow on from the genealogical line of the Fairhodes, mentioned in "The Fayrehodes of Ludgate Hill".

A.E.Fairhead

Norwich,
January, 1975.

Since the death of Albert material has been gathered by the late Mr. G.T. Fairhead, myself and fellowship members in general and added to Albert's work to give a fuller and more informative story. This record is compiled from Albert's original book and the new information collected since that time.

At this time (Mar 2000) I have still been unable to connect "The Butchers" to the "The Fayrehodes".

Doubtless a number of readers will fault some of the statements made and may be able to give a truer account of the happenings. This can be only part of the full story and any additions will be most welcome.

Where places are described as a 'District', this is the Registration District where the event was Registered. These were introduced in 1837, and the names and boundaries of many of these Districts have changed over the years since. A list of these districts can be found at <http://www.ukbmd.org.uk/genuki/reg/districts/index.html>

The First Phase.

Amongst the earliest of the Family in the trade of Butcher was :-

William Fairhed ⁽³⁰⁶⁷⁾ butcher, of St. Andrews Hubbard, London, born about the year 1370 and :-

John Fayrehede ⁽³⁰⁶⁸⁾ born about 1375 also a butcher of St. Andrews Hubbard. These were possibly brothers, and grand sons of :-

John Fayreher ⁽³⁰⁶⁰⁾ born c.1310, the Grocer, and great grandsons of :-

Geoffrey Fairher ⁽³⁰⁶⁴⁾ born c.1280.

There is also reason to believe that they were of one family as each made some contribution to the church of St. Leonard de Estchepe and were buried there, possibly in the same tomb.

There were varying surnames adopted in that time (quite probably this was due to the fact that reading and writing was a skill acquired by very few in those days and that spelling was not standardised as it is today, and the person doing the writing, put down his version as he heard the word spoken, accounting for many of the variations) and to support this theory Albert found that the son of William Fairhed was named John Fayrehere. In the will of Juliana dated the 27th December 1442 relict of :-

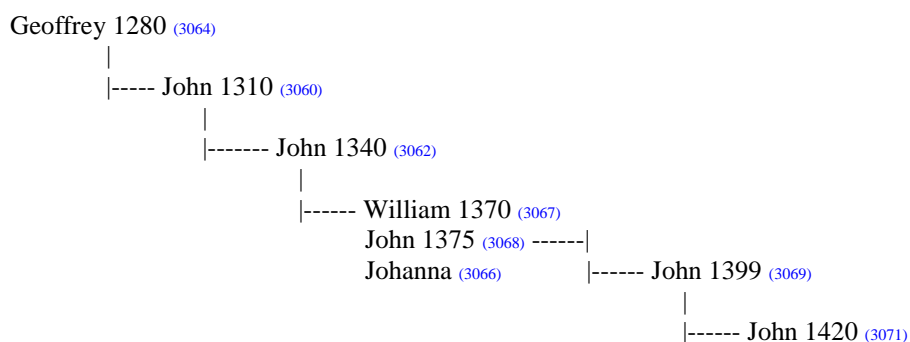

William Fairhed 1370 ⁽³⁰⁶⁷⁾ the son of :-

John, born c.1340 ⁽³⁰⁶²⁾ was mentioned together with his wife Agnes and their daughter Johanna and in the will of the son, John Fayrehere, the same persons were mentioned together with the same servants and apprentices, about eight of them, which suggests that they were of one household, and of the same family. This

John Fayrehere ⁽³⁰⁶⁹⁾ born about the turn of the century died in early life, actually one year after his mother in 1443. He was followed by another :-

John (Fayrehede) ⁽³⁰⁷¹⁾ but the relative connection could not be traced. This John was born about the year 1420 and died in 1469. His wife Margaret survived him.

From the above records a family line something like that shown below can be deduced :-

Records for the next century seem uncertain, but there is reason to believe that the family adopted the name of Fairhod.

The next entry that has been found is :-

John Fairhod ⁽³⁰⁷⁴⁾ born c.1550. It may be noted that the family is still at St. Andrews Hubbard, the same address as the earlier Fairhods and Fairheres and one may suggest that this is a continuation of that butchers line. The baptism of John Fairhod was followed by :-

John Fairhod ⁽³⁰⁷⁶⁾ baptised in October 1588 at St. Andrews Hubbard. And :-

Esther Fairhod ⁽³⁰⁷⁷⁾ in April 1590.

John Fairhod 1588 ⁽³⁰⁷⁶⁾ married Anna Loades at St. Martins, Ludgate in August 1610.

The Second Phase.

Now again there is a further interval in the records until it is found that:-

Thomas (Farrar) 1770 ⁽²⁹⁰⁶⁾ married Henrietta ? ⁽²⁹⁰⁷⁾ in Holborn, London in 1795. Thomas owned a Butchers Business based at 12 Fetter Lane, Holborn. This union brought about the birth of two sons :-

Thomas John ⁽²⁹⁰⁸⁾	b	26th January 1792
Henry ⁽²⁹⁰⁹⁾	b	30th May 1798

p.s. After some years of keeping these Fairhead records I (Richard) have now (April 98) reached the conclusion that the name "Farrar " is not connected to our family and when time permits I will endeavour to make a connection between the 2 sons mentioned above (Thomas John and Henry) and earlier generations mentioned previously. Obviously with such common Christian names there must be some difficulty in arriving at the correct record, especially in times when information such as this was not kept with today's modern methods and efficiency.

The 2nd Generation.

Given below is the list of the 2nd generation along with their parents of the 3rd generation :-

1st Generation

Thomas (Farrar) 1770 (2906) & Henrietta (?) (2907)

2nd Generation

Thomas John	1792 <small>(2908)</small>
Henry	1798 <small>(2909)</small>

Thomas John 1792 (2908) married Elizabeth Baker (2910) (b abt 1794) at Colne Engaine on the 17th December 1818, and was stated to be a Butcher. (It is now 400 years since the time of William 1370). Thomas moved to the village of Earls Colne, Essex. where he set up business in the High Street. A business, which continued for almost 100 years. He and Elizabeth raised the following family :-

Elizabeth <small>(2911)</small>	bap.	1 st March 1817
George <small>(2912)</small>	b	27 th January 1820	bap. 20/2/1820
James <small>(2913)</small>	bap.	23 rd December 1821
Elizabeth <small>(2914)</small>	bap.	10 th August 1823
Thomas <small>(2915)</small>	bap.	8 th January 1826
Maria <small>(2916)</small>	bap.	15 th February 1829
Elizabeth Baker <small>(2917)</small>	b	1831	bap. 21 st August 1831
Ephraim <small>(2918)</small>	b	5 th July 1836	bap. 31 st July 1836

Thomas John 1796 lived to the age of 82 years and died a widower at Earls Colne on the 21st February 1873, his wife Elizabeth having died on the 10th October 1867. A Tombstone marks their grave.

Henry 1798 (2909) appears to have taken over his father's butchery business at 12 Fetter Lane, Holborn. He married (wife unknown) (2919) and had the following family :-

Thomas <small>(2920)</small>	b	1818
James <small>(2921)</small>	b	1820
John <small>(2922)</small>	b	1825
Alice <small>(2923)</small>	b	1828

There may have been more in this family but Albert was unable to trace any.

At this point, now that some of the family have moved to Essex, some information about the village of Earls Colne will probably be of interest to the reader, this information was obtained from the Internet. :-

The Parish of Earls Colne.

Earls Colne is named after the river Colne upon which it lies, and the Earls of Oxford who owned the manor from before the start of our documents and who were often buried there. It is five miles from the market town of Coggeshall, ten miles from Colchester and about forty miles north east of the city of London. With a total circumference of approximately ten miles and an area of just under three thousand acres, it constituted a tiny part of the land area of England. Likewise its total population, which fluctuated between 500 and 1000 persons during this period, only constituted roughly one hundredth of the population of the county of Essex and one ten thousandth of the total population of England and Wales. Despite this, and despite the regional diversity of England, there are grounds for believing that we are observing in this parish a microcosm of life not only in northeastern Essex or East Anglia, but also in England in general.

Earls Colne lies in the boulder clay plateau of northern central Essex at a height of between 100 feet and 400 feet above sea level, in an area of small hills and valleys. Although there were traces of open field cultivation in the fifteenth century, most of the parish, like much of central Essex, had been early enclosed into small fields with hedges. Most of the old forest had receded, except for one large medieval woodland called Chalkney Wood comprising about a fifteenth of the parish. There were also a few alder groves and marshes, but most of the rest of the land was used for mixed farming. The use of the land changed very greatly during the period 1400-1750. In the seventeenth century, for example, the crops included grain, hops, fruit, and vegetables and there were various kinds of animal husbandry. Although the river Colne that formed the northern border was not navigable at this point, its waters drove two mills. The main communications were along roads to Coggeshall, Colchester and Halstead, including the main Cambridge to Colchester road, which ran through the village. Much of the produce from the village was taken in this way down to Colchester where it was carried by water to other ports, including London. Apart from agriculture, the main occupations were shop keeping and petty manufactures. There was a fair on Lady Day (March 25th) and numerous shops and inns. There was a market place with open stalls in the middle of the village. Occupations altered very considerably through the centuries. As well as smiths, tanners, millers and other occupations there were, particularly from the later sixteenth century with the influx of Dutch immigrants into northeastern Essex, considerable numbers employed in spinning and weaving cloth for export all over Europe. In all these respects, Earls Colne was similar though not identical to other villages in northern and central Essex.

The size of the village fluctuated very considerably over these three hundred and fifty years, from a lower limit of a little over a hundred dwellings to an upper limit of twice that number. In 1598, when there is a map, there were 139 houses (140 including Colne Priory). Many of these were subdivided. Two thirds of the houses lay in the main village along the street, the other third was scattered as farms and cottages through the rest of the parish: a nucleated settlement pattern characteristic of this part of Essex. There were also several larger buildings: the parish church of St. Andrew; the buildings of the small Benedictine Priory of Colne which flourished until 1534; the central residence of the lords of the manor which was several times rebuilt, being moved from near to the church to the site of the dissolved Priory.

When we turn to the landholding pattern, we find that less than two hundred acres of Earls Colne was held by 'free deed' or freehold directly of the King. The rest was held in two lordships: the manor of Earls Colne and Colne Priory. During the period from 1137 up to 1583 the former was held by the Earls of Oxford as part of the Earldom. The seventeenth Earl sold it in that year to Roger Harlakenden whose descendants have held it ever since. The other, the manor of Colne Priory, was held by the Priory until 1534 and then granted a few years later to the Earls of Oxford until they sold it to the same Harlakenden family in 1592. Approximately two fifths of each of the two manors were let out to tenants by copyhold tenure, the other three fifths were held directly by the lords as demesne. During the course of time, some of this land was formed into largish farms usually of between fifty and one hundred acres such as Hay House and Curds.

The 3rd Generation.

Given below is the list of the 3rd generation along with their parents of the 2nd generation :-

2nd Generation 3rd Generation

Thomas John 1796 (2908) & Elizabeth (Baker) (2910)	Elizabeth	1817 (2911)
	George	1820 (2912)
	James	1821 (2913)

	James	1820 (2921)
	John	1825 (2922)
	Alice	1828 (2923)

Elizabeth 1817 (2911) must have died in infancy.

George 1820 (2912) worked with his father in the business and became the proprietor after his death. He married Susan Harrington (2924) (b.23.1.1824) on the 27th January 1843 at Earls Colne Church, the ceremony was presided over by the Rev. J.F.Bullock. Susan was the daughter of James (3124) & Mary (nee Galley (3125)) Harrington. They had the following family :-

Charles (2925)	b	17 th November 1843
Thomas James (4918)	b	19 th October 1845 bap 26 th December 1845
Martha Jane (4919)	b	22 nd March 1847

William Walter (2929)	b	3 rd July 1851
Mary Margaret (5181)	b	9 th February 1863 bap. 6 th April 1863
		At Earls Colne

When William Walter was born the business had prospered and employed six men. George died on the 28th September 1871, aged 51 and Susan on the 20th August 1898 aged 74, and as far as can be ascertained the butchers business was not carried on by any of their sons so it would appear to be the end of the Fairhead butchers at Earls Colne.

James 1821 (2913) No record.

Elizabeth 1823 (2914) this second Elizabeth probably also died in infancy.

Thomas 1826 (2915) married Mary Ann Owers (2930) at Earls Colne where he became a Master Shoemaker. They had the following family :-

Joseph (2931)	b	31 st October 1866

Herbert James (3560)	b	1873
Daisy (3561)	b	1875
Thomas (3562)	b	1877
Hugh (3563)	b	1878
		Earls Colne

Thomas (2915) died in 1895, in the Halstead District, Essex. Mary Ann (2930) died in 1932, in the Halstead District.

Maria 1829 (2916) apparently assisted in the butcher's business, and died on the 1st September 1868 at the age of 39 years.

Elizabeth Baker 1831 (2917) became a schoolteacher. She married ? (7409) in 1858, in the Stepney District, London.

Ephraim 1836 (2918) married ? (?) (7691) in 1877, in the West Ham District, London. Ephraim died on the 31st October 1887, aged 51 years.

Thomas 1818 (2920) married Elizabeth Winder (6070) at the Parish of St. Andrews, Holborn, London on the 22nd February 1840. Elizabeth was the daughter of John Winder (3079) the Shipwright, and Elizabeth (3080) (b abt 1776). Thomas was also a Butcher. They had the following family :-

Edward (2933)	b abt.	1841
Horace (2934)	b abt.	1843
William (3230)	b	1846
Henry (2935)	b	8 th October 1848
John (2936)	b	14 th April 1851
Charles (2937)	b	12 th February 1853

Thomas and Elizabeth moved, at some point, from Fetter Lane, which was the home of father Henry, to 8 Annettes Crescent, Islington.

Thomas remarried on the 8th November 1876, to Susan (nee Harrison (formally Fairhead) (2924)), (who was the widow of his cousin George 1820 (2912)), at St. Ethelburga, Bishopsgate, London.

James 1820 (2921) married Jane Pittard (2938), the daughter of Jesse Pittard (3081) a linen manufacturer, on the 2nd September 1841 at the parish of St. Andrews, Holborn. His profession was stated to be a Butcher and the witnesses were those at his brothers marriage a year earlier. Only one daughter has been traced from this union, she was :-

Amelia (3083)	bap.	6 th December 1844
---------------	------	-------------------------------

John 1825 (2922) was also a butcher of Islington, and although no record of a marriage could be found (wife 3086), he had a son :-

William (2939)	b	1850
----------------	---	------

Alice 1828 (2923) No record.

This union was very brief as Henry died on the 23rd October 1886 at St. Bartholomews Hospital at the young age of 38 years. At this time he was described as a Butcher of Essex Road, London City. They had the following family :-:-

John 1851 ⁽²⁹³⁶⁾ deserted the Butchery trade to become a Commercial Clerk on the Stock Exchange. He was the only one of the six sons of this generation who failed to carry on in that trade. He was married twice but the only one that could be traced was to Elizabeth Reed ⁽²⁹⁵⁹⁾ (b. abt. 1854) on the 25th September 1870 in Islington.
